

X-RAAS 2.0

APPROACHING...!

A large commercial airplane is shown from a low angle, approaching a runway at night. The scene is set in the rain, with numerous white vertical lines representing rain falling across the entire image. The runway is illuminated by yellow lights, and the runway markings, including the letters 'C' and '28R', are visible on the tarmac. The airplane's landing gear and tail lights are visible. The overall atmosphere is dark and dramatic.

Avionics Integration Guide